17:04:08 From Ben Jacobs : Hi all!!!
17:05:18 From ktyo-dickerson : Hello everyone from The Hague!
17:22:48 From Klaudia Janek : Do you have worksheets for students that librarians can use to become familiar with these particular databases? Presentations or videos? It's so much easier for me to share ready made videos made professionally, then for me to try to recreate these things.
17:24:13 From Angie Kassem : Hi Klaudia. Yes, we do. We have flyers, educator guides, overview videos, etc.
17:25:35 From ktyo-dickerson : Oops, Thanks Angie!
17:25:46 From Angie Kassem : You're welcome. :)
17:25:55 From Ben Jacobs : We also have the 90 second videos on our website that are great intros
17:25:59 From Klaudia Janek : Thanks!
17:26:11 From ktyo-dickerson : Great, thanks Ben!
17:30:42 From Klaudia Janek : Is there an export feature to NoodleTools? :)
17:30:53 From Angie Kassem : Yes.
17:30:58 From ktyo-dickerson : Jinx!
17:31:42 From ktyo-dickerson : I was going to have them talk about that, students love that. Just showed a student how to import from Bloom's Literature.
17:32:41 From ktyo-dickerson : Export from. Import into NT.
17:33:42 From Klaudia Janek : @Kim perfect :) We must be on the same wavelength.
17:35:20 From Klaudia Janek : I saw an EasyBib button, but not NoodleTools. Did I miss that. I know there is a quick cite. But I was wondering about the integration.
17:37:31 From Melissa Cavender : Ditto on the NT
17:38:15 From Graeme Boyd To All Panelists : can you please mention quickly 'films on demand'
17:38:28 From Melissa Cavender : Thank you very much!
