09:08:15 From kimbra : Kimbra in Shanghai, Hi Prasanna. Hi Everyone. Just rushed home from full day at work, ready for a full day of learning. This conference is a great week of good things, but man, my brain is tired.

09:12:46 From Courtney Park To All Panelists : Since we cannot visit each other's libraries this year, we would love to show images of libraries from around the world. Please share one photo of your library! If your school has more than one library, please feel free to send a photo for that library too. https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSe-zqju7603cdmx3E2chm0_xr9SMvLD-N_R6Sp5Ku9ZSnhS-w/viewform?usp=sf_link

09:13:01 From Courtney Park : We would love to hear what was one of your favourite reads in 2020/2021! We will share great read titles with librarians at the conference. Please note: While it does not have to be a book published in 2020 or 2021, please choose one that was published since 2015. - https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSdUqxcvM404weRcEZshr2d3LXMTIImntb5o7ipK5wK5kMpDDw/viewform?usp=sf_link

09:26:27 From Cara Keyman : The first building block of making meaning when reading is looking for a cultural equivalence

09:28:34 From Cara Keyman : Greatest books are the ones that gives the reader a bit of everything and something new.

09:33:24 From ktyo-dickerson To All Panelists : Can you describe some of structures you use to scaffold cultural points? Do you work with teachers on these structures?

09:34:58 From Anita Saigal : Hi, Anita from New Delhi

09:35:59 From ktyo-dickerson To All Panelists : I hadn't thought about the timeline of Translation Studies...I want to know more about that.

09:38:41 From grossi : I feel that languages which use "ideographic systems" are virtually untranslatable because the aesthetic layer their writing systems involve is totally lost in alphabetical languages

09:46:40 From Anthony Tilke : I keep updated a resource list on Destin with translations of novels & looking forward to when the 100 book limit on collections is lifted so as to be able to make a

Collection

09:47:06 From Catherine Bae : Great idea @Anthony

09:47:55 From Anthony Tilke : Like the translation policy of Pushkin Press – <https://pushkinpress.com/>

09:48:08 From kimbra : Thanks for sharing Anthony

09:48:25 From Helle Kirstein To All Panelists : @Anthony Tilke – we do the same for both Picturebooks and novels in the Elementary Library

09:48:36 From Helle Kirstein : @Anthony Tilke – we do the same for both Picturebooks and novels in the Elementary Library

09:49:35 From ktyo-dickerson To All Panelists : I have hit the 100 limit @Anthony, so I import the max into the collection, and then add from there...so far it works until we can use the import.

09:50:21 From Anthony Tilke : Great point about graphic books – and seems to be a developing area for Dutch books. Also, our Spanish DP teacher has recommended graphic books for our Spanish language section, as she says that the DP now enables graphic books to be studied

09:50:51 From ktyo-dickerson To All Panelists : The bummer is adding books within Discover doesn't tell me if the book is already in the collection, but it is a workaround for now...

09:56:17 From Meriç To All Panelists : Thank you so much.
